

PRESS RELEASE

Uhlmann Price Securities, LLC is pleased to announce that Alan Delcorse has joined the firm as a Director of Institutional Services Group. He comes to Uhlmann Price with an extensive background in non-traditional investments including convertible securities, managed futures and hedge funds. Prior to Uhlmann Price Alan was an Executive Vice President of Man Investments where he worked with advisors and their clients primarily in the Western United States. Before joining Man, Alan worked for Calamos Investments as an Institutional Director, providing various investment solutions to institutional and high-net-worth clients. Overall, he has over 25 years experience in the investment industry including his role as a Financial Consultant with Merrill Lynch prior to Calamos. “We are extremely pleased to have a professional of Al’s background and experience join our team. It is fortunate that our firm is in a position to be able to focus on growth and opportunity despite the difficult investment climate over the past two years” remarked Jim Baer, Managing Member.

In his role with Uhlmann Price, Alan will work with RIA’s and institutional investors to provide timely solutions for further diversification, non-correlation and total return. His primary focus will be introducing strategies to participate in 1) the commodity asset class via the Rogers International Commodity Index® (known as the RICI®) and 2) the managed futures skill class through multi manager solutions. “Alan is an excellent addition to the Institutional team and we look forward to his input and contributions as we build our alternative investment distribution business” added Alan Konn, Managing Director of the Institutional Services Group.

Uhlmann Price Securities, LLC is a FINRA registered Broker Dealer and a Registered Investment Advisor headquartered in the Chicago Board of Trade. The firm was founded by Fred Uhlmann, former Chairman of the Board of Trade. The firm serves both institutions and high net worth individuals with a focus on diversification and asset allocation.
