

Argus Analysts Recognized For Stock Picks

May 2008

Financial Times/StarMine “World’s Top Analysts Survey”

Argus Research Company is pleased to announce that the following Argus analysts have been recognized in the latest The Financial Times/StarMine “World’s Top Analysts Survey” as top stock pickers:

- Media & Communications: Joseph Bonner, CFA - #1
- Road & Rail: Kevin Tynan - #1
- Auto Components: Kevin Tynan - #1
- Household Products: Erin Smith - #2
- Restaurant & Leisure: John Staszak, CFA - #2

Complete details, including methodology and candidate universe can be found at <http://www.ft.com/reports/topanalysts200>

Wall Street Journal/Thomson Reuters “Best on the Street: 2008 Analysts Survey”

Argus Research Company is pleased to announce that the following Argus analysts have been recognized in the latest Wall Street Journal/Thomson Reuters “Best of the Street: 2008 Analysts Survey” as top stock pickers:

- Oil Equipment, Services & Distribution – David Rewcastle - #1
- Telecommunications: Fixed Line: Joseph Bonner, CFA - #2
- Restaurants: John Staszak, CFA - #2

Complete details, including methodology and candidate universe can be found at: http://online.wsj.com/mdc/public/page/2_3024-best2008_stocks.html

More information about these analysts and their coverage is available on our website www.Argusresearch.com. Our screening tool allows users to pinpoint the analysts and their top picks.

Since 1934, Argus Research has been at the forefront of the independent equity research industry. We believe our proprietary six-point research process and our independence combine to give us an edge as we develop our ideas, our forecasts and our investment ratings. Ratings discussed in this article may not be representative of any one person’s experience and are not indicative of future performance.

For more information about how Argus Research’s products and services can help your business, please contact Mark Fenton at 212-425-7500, ext. 5484.